Brash Asset are a mixed gender act whom have perfected the art of mixing live instruments and vocals with professional backing tracks resulting in a full and energetic sound at any volume for any occasion. If you want your occasion to be fun and memorable, think no further than Brash Asset.

Brash Asset are:

Brett Dwight (Guitars and Vocals): Brett has been performing professionally since 1989. After attaining his Diploma in Contemporary Music, Brett was awarded a Scholarship to the Australian International Conservatorium of Music. Brett has passed on his skills having tutored guitar and musicianship to students of all ages for over ten years. Brett has played with numerous bands which include Manx Katz Trio, Lost Souls, and Jake and the Fat Men of which one of the highlights was playing the 2001 Bathurst 1000 at Mount Panorama in Bathurst NSW. Brett's playing put simply makes you want to play 'air guitar' motivating even the most staunch none dancer to get up and have fun!

Ashka Taylor (Vocals and Percussion): Ashka started at the young age of seven, when her father first enrolled her in singing lessons. Entering various singing and performance competitions, Ashka took out first place in the Sydney City Eisteddfod for Best Contemporary Vocal Performance in 1989. Since then, Ashka has instructed students and has played in various bands including the award winning Crimson Phoenix! Ashka has a truly ear pleasing voice while having a natural performance ability!

Don't miss out on a fun and memorable time with Brash Asset for your venue or occasion.
