

KATRINA B

Katrina is a 21 year old national and international award winning singer/songwriter who is determined not to be ignored in the Australian music industry. A prolific songwriter with an interesting voice of unique quality, she is the full package.

In March 2009 Burgoyne was awarded an APRA (Australian Performing Rights Association) Professional Development Award. The $12,000 grant sent her to music city Nashville, TN USA. Where Katrina spent a month writing for her much anticipated debut album due to be released in 2010.

Her highlights include appearances on Mornings with Kerry-Anne, Sunrise, The feature of her song To Late For Sorry on up and coming band Chasing Bailey (EMI Australia) debut album, and performances on Main Stage at the Gympie Muster 2005/2006.

This zany, exciting young lady sparkles on stage and you will find yourself itching to see her again!
