

Kirsty Larkin

Kirsty Larkin is a solo guitarist/singer/songwriter whose music reflects fresh, uplifting and bluesy undertones. From elegant wedding music to songs that will push you up out of your seat for a dance, Kirsty's solid guitar skills and large vocal range packed with attitude and sweetness make nothing out of her reach. Kirsty's unique style and positive outlook on life is a well earned breath of fresh air to the music industry, and her extensive repertoire is bound to evoke past memories and take you away from the daily grind for a while. From early blues and rock to today's top 40 hits, Kirsty commits herself to every song and pours into it emotion and life, while putting her own sultry/original swing on them. Having played in numerous professional pop/rock, jazz, blues bands and duos Kirsty has a natural feel for the right kind of music for your venue or event, and will cater to any specific requests.

Kirsty's influence is primarily by artists such as Eva Cassidy, Tommy Emmanuel, Billie Holiday and James Taylor, who have all played a big part in what she stands for when it comes to music and the large industry that it is.

Kirsty is always moving forward and adding new songs and fan requests to her repertoire.