

Angela Norris

Angela Norris is a talented Singer, Songwriter and Keyboard Player.

With over 15 years experience as a performer, Angela delivers an entertaining and professional show, that will appeal to all age groups and suit the mood of any venue or occasion.

Her exciting repertoire of famed and favourite tunes, from the great classics of the 60's & 70's through to the current hits of today, draws from an extensive range of musical styles such as R&B, Soul, Jazz, Disco, Dance, Country, Pop and Rock, giving her the diversity of material to cater for everyone's musical tastes and making her the perfect choice for your night out!

Her performance is fun and dynamic, comprising of powerful seductive vocals, live keyboards and quality professional backing tracks.

Angela first cut her teeth in the Australian Music Scene as a support act for Richard Clapton and then went on to tour extensively throughout Australia and the UK as a solo artist and with her original band, Good People. Upon returning from Europe, Angela went in to the studio to record her first solo EP, "Urst" and worked with the Sydney Dance Company, writing and recording music for their "Random Play" season.

Since then she has been playing the local music scene with her original band, Urst and popular covers duo, Miss Behaviour.