Biography

Deborah Sinclair started playing in a duo called Fire and Ice in mid 1988, playing various venues around Newcastle and the Hunter Valley regions. They played in several venues around Sydney, extensively around N.S.W., international venues such as Vanuatu and two cruises on the Fairstar.

Deborah plays all styles of music ranging from 60's rock and roll, classics from the 70's, 80's and 90's through to the top 40 hits of today. She plays keyboard both acoustically and with very professional sequenced backing creating versatility for all varieties of venues and audiences.

She is a consummate entertainer who absolutely loves what she does and therefore involves herself with the audience on all levels, creating a fun and participative atmosphere. Predominantly, the music she plays is contemporary with some blues and jazz thrown in for variety. She is able to cater for everything from dinner music to dance venues. . Deborah has a very professional approach to her music and is completely reliable. She has been working in the music industry full time, for fifteen years and has never missed or cancelled a gig, thereby showing her dedication to and love of her craft.
