Biography

Trevor Weston is a versatile entertainer, singer, guitarist saxophonist and multi-instrumentalist. He is a highly qualified musician with a Bachelor of Music (Honours) and an Associate Diploma in Jazz Studies from the Sydney Conservatorium of Music. Trevor has performed extensively across the Sydney and Wollongong metropolitan areas whether as a duo member or as a solo artist. Some of the venues performed at as a solo artist include, Orient Hotel in the Rocks, Coogee Bay Hotel, East's Leagues Club, Novatel Northbeach at Wollongong and the New South Wales Snowfields, as well as a three year residency at the Observer Hotel in the Rocks. Previously a member of Kate Can't Dance, Trevor now balances his solo activities with working with a top Sydney Duo, Going Beserk. Adaptable to an assortment of venues from large audiences at hotels, clubs, weddings and special functions to the more intimate venues and smaller private gatherings, a high standard of professionalism is always maintained.
